Re: United States v. Joseph Talamini
Criminal Docket No. 10-289 (S-1)(DLI)

Dear Judge Irizarry:

The government respectfully submits this letter to request that sentencing in this matter, now set for Friday, November 18, 2011 at 11:00 a.m., be adjourned to Thursday, December 15, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. The government requests this additional time in order to obtain mortgage loss information that has not yet been made available to this Office or to United States Probation. Such information will allow the government to recommend, and the Court to determine, the most appropriate sentence for the defendant. This is the first request that the government has made for an adjournment of sentencing. I have spoken with Senior United States Probation Officer Michael Dorra, who has no objection to this request; similarly, the defendant, through his attorney Louis Gelormino, Esq., does not object to the government's request.

Respectfully submitted,

LORETTA E. LYNCH
United States Attorney
